IN THE COURTS.

LOUIS ARMAND DECLARED TO BE SANE.

CONFINEMENT IN AN ASYLUM CURES HIS LOVE FOR MRS. C. B. ALEXANDER.

Louis Armand has been confined in the Ward's Island Insane Asylum since February 9 last upon a commitment signed by Judge McAdam, in the Superior Court. Judge McAdam's commitment was founded upon a Judge McAdam's commitment was founded upon a certificate signed by Drs. Matthew D. Field and Allen Fitch, both of whom are connected with the Depart-ment of Charities and Correction. A jury before Judge McAdam vesterday decided that Armand was sane and he was released. Armand's hallucination which caused him to be locked up was a bellef that Mrs. Charles B. Alexander was in love with him, that she would then consent to be Mrs. Armand. Mrs. Alexander is the daughter of the late Charles Crocker, the California millionaire. About fourteen years ago her mother employed Armand to give French lessons to her daughter, Miss Hattie. Armand con-tinued to give French lessons to Miss Crocker for two months, at the end of which time he had become violently in love with his pupil and her parents dismissed him. He continued to write love letters to her up to the time that she was married, four years ago, I Charles E. Alexander, whose father is the head of the law firm of Alexander & Green. After that she did not hear anything from Armand for some time. Finally she received a card from him on which he wrote:

"May you be happy as you deserve." On January 29 last she received the following letter

itattie Crocker Alexander, No. 4 West Fifty

Mrs. Hattie Crocker Alexander, No. 4 West Fifty eighth-st.

Dear Mrs. Hattie Crocker Alexander: I hear that you have returned to-day. Permit me to make you acquainted with Mr. Francis Benere, de l'Academie Francaise des Easte-Unis. He will explain to you the subject of his visit. I would be very happy indeed to see you, but I dare not call again without your special permission. I have so many things to tell you and I feel so gloomy. I want to give you the names of many of your acquaintences who belong to that infimous gang on the sly, people whom you would never suspect. It took me six yoars to find them out and to discover the way they work. It is because I know them so thoroughly that they could not get the best either of you or me. Even now you have to be extremely careful, as they are still plotting against you. I hope to have soon an opportunity of seeing you and I beg you, whatever turn events may take, to accept my best wishes for your happiness and prosperity, and to believe me a true, sincere friend. Yours faithfully.

After this he began to hang around Mr. Alexander's

After this he began to hang around Mr. Alexander's home in Fifty-eighth-st. The policeman on that beat observed him, and questioned him one night. Armand said that he was looking for some one in a carriage. He acted so queerly that the policeman took him to the police station. At the police station he said that there had been a nurder committed and that Judge Andrews had issued a warrant for the arrest of the murderer. Armand thought that there was a plot to murder Mrs. Alexander, and another plot to hill him, and he told the police sergeant so. He said that a man had followed him to Europe and told Armand afterward that he had been hired to assassinate him. Armand had called at Mr. Alexander's home be-fore that time and demanded an interview with Mrs. fore that time and demander an intervent was a Alexander. Mr. Alexander ordered him out of the house and told the police of Armand's hallneination. Taking all these facts together, the police decided to hold him, and he was finally committed to the Ward's house and told the police of Armand's hallacination. Taking all these facts together, the police decided to hold him, and he was finally committed to the Ward's Island Insane Asylam. While in the asylam he wrote the following letter to Mrs. Alexander:

City Asylam, Ward's Island, February 20.

Dear Madam: I called to your house on February 5. The coachman told me that you were out, but that you would be bear in ten minutes. I was waiting opposite the Plaza Hotel, as 7 wanted to talk to you before him. I have been arrested for calling to your house, brought to the Fifty-first-st, station and from there to Bellevue Hospital and the City Insane Asylam. Fred and he fixed everything to have me arrested for insanity, I have been juggled in as insane, I am entombed alleve, shut out of the world, I can see nobody; it is through a man who goes out of this prison that this letter is malled to you. It is so dark I can hardly see what I write and the pen is half broken. I am penniless and defenceless, at the merey of a corrupt administration. They can deprive a man of his liberty, whether sane or insane, at their will. This asylam is a modern Pastife where my life even is in danger. This is my reward for saving your life. Is it not awful? May cool help me and rive me the health and strength to suffer! I am afraid I will break down. I know you have been deceived by those detectives. How could you trust them! You knew they were hired by Fred. They tricked your father usual and again the same way. Poor unfortunate woman. May God bless you and protect you from larm. I would gladly die to spore you the least sorrow.

It is impossible to protect one's self against those detectives, as so many people whom you do not, you cannot suspect, belong to them. They all work together, they are all banded together against society. How many homes they have wrecked! They will deceive you again through people they bribe, and you will believe them again: it looks your destiny. I have been your rive and faithful friend, as it were; for howe to

He finally secured an attorney and Judge McAdam empanelled a jury to try the question of Armand's sanity. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Alexander were witnesses and told the story here related. Drs. Stewart witnesses and told the story here related. Drs. Stewart Douglass, Matthew D. Field, Lewis C. Petitt and Allen Field all testined that Armand was insaine. Dr. Field thought that Armand's case resembled that of James M. Dougherty, whose infatuation for Missiary Anderson manify resulted in the killing of Dr. Lloyd. Armand was the only witness in his own beladf. The Jury retired and after deliberating half an hour sent word that they could not agree. They are not sent word that they could not agree. They returned to the court-room and questioned Armand still further about the question of whether he still believed that there was a plot to assassinate Dirs. Alexander. He sain that he did not believe it and that he had been mistaken about it before, lie also declared that he did not love Mrs. Alexander any more. The Jury retired again and within ten minutes returned with a verdict declaring Armand to be sane.

A SUMMONS-SERVER CHARGED WITH PERJURY. George P. Kinne, a real-estate dealer at No. 135. Broadway, began a suit in 1888 against Jacob Meyer, of Newarls, N. J., for $15,000, upon an allegation that Meyer had alienated his wife's affections. Edwin A. Sprague made an affidavit that he served the sum mons in the suit upon Meyer, at West and Deshross sts., on April 2, 1000. When the case came to trial in May of the same year Meyer did not appear to defend the suit and an inquest was taken. The jury brought in a verdict for $1,045 in favor of the plaintiff, and judgment was entered accordingly.

About a year ago Meyer came into the supreme Court, Chambers, and made a motion to open his detault, upon the ground that he had not been served with the summons in the action. His motion was denied and he appealed to the General Term. The General Term appointed Abram Kling as referre to take testimony in the case and report. Kling filed his report yesterday, and in it he charges Sprague with perjury in making the affidavit of service. The referee also says that sprague and James H. Burchell, who is in the same office with Kinne, went to Meyer and promised to give him information which would set aside the judgment if Meyer would pay the sum of $300 to them. Sprague declared in the presence of witnesses that he had not served the summons upon Meyer, notwithstanding his affidavit, in which he swore that he had served it. Meyer did not pay the $300, but he swore before the referee to sprague's confession. The referee recommends that the judgment be set aside. He says that the plaintif's witnesses were untrustworthy and not entitled to belief.

BITS OF LEGAL NEWS. John Herbert Reed, of the firm of Pates, Reed & Cooley, was thrown from his carriage on october 31, 1888, and landed on his head. On November 18 follow-ing he ing he was walking down Broadway and he dropped dead. He had an accident policy in the Traders and Travellers' Accident Insurance Company for $5,000 and his four sons demanded payment on the policy on the the ground that Mr. Reed died from the injuries he received by being thrown from the carriage. The insurance company said that he died from a complieation of diseases, which were independent of the it-inries received from the accident. The sons brought a suit for the amount, in the Court of Common Pleas,

A MILLION DOLLARS IN COIN SENT AWAY

EXPORTED INSTEAD OF GOLD BARS-THE GOV-ERNMENT'S ACTION GENERALLY APPROVED.

There was little comment yesterday in Wall Street regarding the decision of the Treasury Department re-fusing gold bars to exporters. The foreign exchange market adjusted itself to the new conditions involved in the extra cost of shipping coin by an advance of about one-fourth cent to the pound sterling. The two firms—Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co. and Lazard Freres—which applied for the bars on Tuesday secured gold coin through their banks from the Sub-Treasury and hurried it down to the steamers City of New-York and Havel for shipment. The Sub-Treasury decided to adopt the fair plan of furnishing the required $1,000,000 in coins of different denominations pro-portionately to the amount on hand. The larger the coins that were secured the less would be the loss by abrasion compared with the use of gold bars in an exchange transaction. The coin supplied to the two firms was made up in the following proportions on each lot of $500,000; Double eagles, $2-5,000; eagles, $145,000; half eagles, $70,000. As nearly as possible the proportions were observed of four-sevenths in double eagles, two-sevenths in eagles and one-seventh

There still exists dissatisfaction among bullion dealers at the action of the Government, but the general sentiment of brokers and bankers is that it general sentiment of brokers and bankers is that it is right. Some of the critics say that if commercial conditions demand an export of gold it will be bound to go to Europe whatever impediments may be thrown in the way by the necessity of more claborate calcula-tions as to the profitable basis. On the supply of bars for export the Government has received 4 cents per #100, while now the coin goes out without any return to the Treasury.

PRETTY CLOTHES FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Liliputian Bazar, Nos. 60 and 62 West Twentythird-st., as most New-York shoppers know, is an establishment for the complete outfitting of children. The many improvements which have been introduced durng the year and the magnitude of the entire establis ment was displayed under special advantage at the opening yesterday, when the entire store was decked out in its choicest goods. "Special improvements have been made during the year in the fitting of the mil nery section and the departments devoted to dresses and to infants' outfits. A great number of exquisite hats were displayed in Leghorn and in fancy straws. A charming flat of Brazilian braid was trimined with folds of white velvet, pinned down with golden pins, and finished with a huge cluster of white carnatio the side. A little Quaker bonnet for a four-year-old child was finished inside the projecting brim with a ruche of lace and trimmed with braid, white faille ibbon and a cluster of white dandelions and their iry seed vessels. Another gay little flat was made of coquelicot, red chiffon, with a crown of full blown poppies. A little chip in the new Cleopatra yellow shade was trimined with a band of white estrich and tips and knots of white ribbon, and at the back was faced with soft yel ow crape laid on full under the brim. The display of low crape laid on full under the brim. The display of fine dresses for children of all ages, from a tiny toddler of four years up to a bearding-school miss, was very attractive and handsome. Many dalaty little gowns in challs, patterned in flowers, and many delicate-based India silis were on display. The department devoted to infants' outfits was especially attractive. Among pleture-sque objects were the dainty sets of haby ham-pers and sponge bowls, mounted in enamel stands and decorated with chaix and bows of delicate ribbons.

DRAGGED OFF BY A LINE AND DROWNED. As the tug Stannard was casting off from the steamer Saratoga, which she had been assisting into the stream from pier No. 16, yesterday afternoon, heaving line caught the foot of Samuel Tull, the tug's cook, and pulled him overboard. Tull was on deck when the signal was given to let go the hawser of the saratoga. He ran to the bits and east off the hawser. To it was attached a small heaving line. The heaving ne ran out with the hawser and as it did so made a turn around the heel of Tull's boot. In a second he vas jerked overboard. The saratoga was going down tream at about a six-knot pace, and the men on board for were bauling in on the big hawser, so poor Tull was dragged through the water at a rapid rate which must have drowned him almost at once. The Captain of the tug, seeing the accident, shouled frantically for the steamer to stop and for the men on board of her to cense handing in on the hawser. Tall had been to cense hading in on the hawser. Tall had been towed under water for 500 yards before they comprehended what had happened. Then the hine shakeheed and the body appeared for a moment on the sarface. It was only for an instant, for the heaving line, as if salisfied with its marderous work, uncoded from around the dead man's heel and the body sank again. Toll was thirty-one years old, married and had one child.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

A YEAR'S WORK IN THE SANITARY INTERESTS OF NEW-YORKERS.

The Health Department, in its annual report for 1800 sent to the Mayor yesterday, claims that New York City is a pre-eminently healthy place, both for residences and business purposes. The number of feaths last year was 40,103, or 424 more than b 1889, although, according to the Board's estimate of the population, 1,631,232, the death rate was but 24.58, against 23.06 in 1889. The low rate is in spite of the "grippe," which was so prevalent in the beginning of the year. The deaths of infants under one year were 10,288, a decrease of 239 from 1889. This reluced number is ascribed to the Department's careful ty Court-Trial Term-Parts I, II and IV-Adjourned and close inspection of the tenement-house districts to-morpow. Part III-Adjourned until Mon. Tribune Fresh-Air Fund, the st. John's Guild, the Hebrew Sanitarium, and of the King's Daughters and others. There have been, it is claimed, a marked de-crease also in deaths from contagious diseases and : perceptible improvement in tenement-houses. There re of these structures in the city 37,316, and out o these 32,300 were examined by the sanitary corps These are estimated to contain 237,972 families, or a total of 1,023,701 persons. Twenty nine were closed by the inspectors. Not less than 1,250,788 of the by the inspectors. Not less than 1,250,788 of the city's population live in tenement-houses. Other statistics of an interesting nature are given.

There are 6,000 stables in New York, supposed to ac commedate 60,000 horses, who produce 450 tons or refuse daily, all of which is properly removed under the regulations of the Board. There are seven milk inspection districts and 5,000 stores at which milk is old. During the year 58,721 inspections were made at the ferries and markets, and 97,040 specimens exof the Shnitary ordinances, of whom 214 were convicted, 14 discharged and 41 unified. The penaltic indicted by the courts amounted to $7,400. The in spection of fish and food was also said to be right, so that 1,200,341 pounds of ment and fish, and 1,050,070 of fruit and food were condemned and sent to the offset dock.

SECRETARY FOSTER AND THE SENATE. NOT DISPOSED TO IMITATE GOVERNOR HILL

WITH HIS TWO OFFICES. Toledo, March 18 .- "The Blade" this evening has an interview with Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster, who is in the city attending a meeting of the trustees of the Northwestern Ohio Insane Asylum, of which body he is a member. Mr. Foster, on being sked his view of the Senatorial situation in Ohlo, re Why, one thing seems certain to me-that if we elect a Republican Legislature Mr. Sherman will be re-elected, if he is a candidate."

"Will Mr. Sherman be a candidate?" "There have been some intimations made by his friends that he contemplates retiring at the end of his present term. If he concludes to do so, no doubt be will make it known in ample time for the full discussion of the question of his successor."

On being asked as to recent newspaper statements to the effect that he himself is a candidate to succeed Mr. Sherman, Mr. Foster replied:

"It is a question that has been presented to me more than once tately. Had I remained in private to come up within a year as a candidate for another ery important place?"

"But your present term as Secretary will end on the day that the next Senatorial term begins." "Yes, I know; but it seems to me that it would look more as though I were considering my own personal ends than the good of the Republican party Oldo, if I should announce myself as in line for Senatorship."

The Secretary laughed. "Well, Hill is a Democrat; in a Republican." on are not a candidate as Mr. Sherman's successor?"
I certainty do not reel that I would be daing what is best for the party were I to be a candidate." frankly replied Mr. Fister.
The searchary left here this evening for his home in Festoria, and goes back to Washington next week.

THE TRENTON LEGISLATURE.

JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED-LEGAL IZING PRIZE-FIGHTING.

Trenton, March 18 (Special), -- Governor Abbett to day renominated John H. Patterson, of Monmouth, for Keeper of the State Prism, The opposition to his Reeper of the State Press.

appointment was suddenly withdrawn, and it was confirmed by the Schute as seen as received. The Governor also made District Court Judges out of three Assemblymen today, namely, John F. Kerr, to be judge of the court in Paterson; Henry Puster, to be udge of the court in his district in Jersey City, and William D. Daly, to be judge of the court in Hoboken. Thomas Henry was renominated for Judge of the Hd Eletrict Court in Newark. The new judge of the Isl District Court in that city is John G. Trusdell. The senate confirmed all these nominations.

In a great ru-h of business in the House to-day there slipped through without opposition a bill entitled Supplement to an act entitled an act to incorporate boat-clubs and other associations for the promotion of athletic enterprises, approved April 21, 1876." An cour after its passage Mr. Ketcham, of Essex, desired to know if he had been recorded in the negative on the bill. If not, he wanted it understood that he had voted that the bill and the record should be corrected. I am informed," said Mr. Ketcham, "that this bill

"That is absolutely false," said Mr. Mullone, who introduced the bill. Mr. Ketenam's remark created a Instantly there was a furning over of bill files by all the members. Evidently only a few eigen bers knew what the bill was for when they voted for it. bers knew what the bilt was for when they voted for it. The language of the bill was capable of bearing out are criticism on it. The fight to get the bill up again was successful. An amendment was adopted prevent interiors from offering prices to sparrers or characturations from fees to their criterial ments. In its new shape the bill was passed again. The sporting mentatout the Legislature say that if the bill becomes a law, the police will not interfere with fights, as they in now. True, close cannot offer club prizes to the lighters, but there is nothing to probibit the members from making up "private" purses to get men in the ring.

TROUBLES OF BUSINESS MEN.

A LARGE BOOT AND SHOE FIRM IN CINCINNATI ASSIGNS.

Cincinnati, March 18.-The wholesale boot and shee irm of J. & A. Simplinson made an assignment this norming to exclude Goebel. The Habilities are $100,000; assets $300,000. There is profound symsathy in all business circles in the city at this an ement, John Simplinson has been active in many public enterprises, benevolent and otherwise, and as was about to retire on account of age. There has been no sudden loss, but only a gradual reduction is the volume of business, and as the firm had recently avested heavily in their new Fourth-st. establishment, invested heavily in their new Fourfil-st. e-tablishment, the burden became too heavy to be borne. The firm is composed of John Strapkinson, his brother, Alfred simplifinson, and a nephew, H. H. Simplifinson, who is also an adopted son of John Simplifinson. Yesterday deeds and mortgages by the members of the firm to the amount of $810,009 were filed in favor of Davis shoe Company, John Kelly, guardian, Elizabeth Robert, Mary E. E. Wolcott, guardian, and others. It is said the assignment leaves the men absolutely pennitees, their elegant houses being turned over to their creditors.

ANOTHER KANSAS BANK CLOSED. Kansas City, March 1s.—"The Star's" Topeka, Kan. dispatch says: "The United States Saving Dank of this city closed its doors this morning and made an assignment to samuel T. House, president of the Kansas Na tional Bank. The failure of the bank was caused by the failure a few weeks ago of John D. Knox, babe of W. C. Knox, president of the bank. The assets are large and will pay in full all flabilities. The capital slock of the bank was $251,000.9

THE KORLSAAT STATUE OF GRANT. Galens, III., March 18 .- The Kollisaat statue of General Grant, now being cast for erection in this city, will probably be anyelled on Memorial Day, that date having been agreed upon by the committee having the matter in charge. It is stated that the orator of the occasion will be either James G. Blaine or Chauncey M. Depew.

THE CALIFORNIA SENATORSHIP.

STEPS TAKEN TO INVESTIGATE THE STORIES

OF BRIBERY. Sacramento, Cal., March 18.-The first ballot of today in joint assaion resulted as follows: Estee, 46; Felton, 34; Johnston, 4; Blanchard, 2; Perkins, 1;

White (Dem), 24; Irish (Dem), 1.

At the close of the ballot Felton's friends demanded an adjournment, and on call of roll this was carried by a vote of 62 to 50. The tally list of certain members of the Legislature found in the office of the State Librarian was one torn up by Assemblyman Dibble, the leader of the Repub-Beans in the Assembly, who said he had been chec ing it off and tore it up in connection with one of the county division bills, and that nothing improper could be shown in connection with it, as the list containe names of a number of Democrats whom he cited; that it could not be taken in any sense as part of the Sen

Immediately upon the opening of the Senate this morning Senator Voorbles introduced a joint resolution calling upon both houses to appoint a committee of three to meet with the Attorney-General for the purpose of investigating the documents found in the State Library yesterday. The committee was appointed. The House took similar action and Assemblyman Dib ble in a speech said that he desired the fullest inquiry into all the facts connected with the matter.

Ex-Congressman Charles N. Felton wrote a per mpiory letter yesterday to the Attorney-General de manding that he disclose the actual facts and proceed against any one who might be involved even by imagainst any one who might be involved even by implication in the alleged wrong-doing. The Attorneydeneral at once replied that so far as he had examined the matter the papers turned over to him in no way showed that Mr. Felton or any other candidate had personally done anything improper in connection with the senatorial contest. He also said that the evidence in his possession was not underent to warrant him in filing information of an character against any nexon.

SUMMING UP FO. LINGO.

Camden, March 18.-The court-room was again packed to-day with a motiey crowd of curious people, who had gathered to listen to the trial of Francis Lingo for the murder of Mrs. Miller. When the court opened this morning all of the associate justices were present. and the jury, when they filed into the jury-box, had an expectant look upon their faces, knowing that the case would soon be given to them. Prosecutor Jenkins ended his argument for the State this morning. He spent most of the forenoon in speaking on the time unaccounted for by Lingo on Thursday, the day of the murder. He endeavored to show that it would be possible for Lingo to have committed the deed and afterward returned to his work from the bush-lot during that time. Prosecutor Jenkins eaded his argument with more than once lately. Had I remained in private iffe I probably should have been a candidate for the senatorship. But is not the case now somewhat different? I have accepted a Cabinet office. Will

TESTIMONY AT THE CATLEY COURT-MARTIAL.

Omalia, Neb., March 18 .- In the Catler courtmartial case to-day Surgeon Hartsuff testified that Catley had asked his opinion on his (Catley's) inability to march with the company. He found Catley suffering from varicose veins, but not had enough to prevent his going on an ordinary march. The witness would accept Catley on an application for re-enlistment, but not as a new recruit. General Wheaton, the commandant at rore omains, testified that he believed that Catley was disqualified for duty. Some officers of the regiment believed the captain was incompetent to command under die. The officers considered Catley's not accom-panying his company into the field from Pine Ridge as a disgrace to the regiment. The meeting adjourned until to-morrow morning.

DISCHARGED FOR TAKING A HOLIDAY.

Lowell, Mass., March 18.-This morning 198 em ployes of the Merrimac Mills were discharged because they remained out yesterday to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. They are from every department of the mills the spinning, weaving, bleaching, dyeing, pitning, fin ishing and packing rooms. Twenty women are among those discharged. The employes were warned not to stay out, and discharge papers were handed to those who did so when they reported at the mill this morning. At moon to-day some of the men discharged gathered about the counting room, and hooted the agent as he drove home to dinner. A p-lice officer repeatedly drove them away, and they hooted him, but offered no violence. The superintendent is said to have blacklist-ed the discharged operatives. Ten persons were also discharged from the Lawrence Company's mills this morning for the same reason.

Chicago, March 18 .- A dispatch from Denver says It is announced that the famous Maxwell land grant, containing 1,700,000 acres of land, has been sold. The price is not mentioned. It is the largest deal ever recorded in the West. The agent who made the deal has been in New-York for the last six months, where he has been negotiating, but he will say very little when it is stated that the company is stocked for $10,000,000. The final payment is to be made in about three moaths, when the company will take possession of the lands." about the matter. Some idea of the deal may be gained

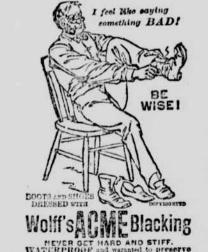

WRECK ON A WESTERN ROAD.

Kansas City, March 18 .- A dispatch from Trenton, Mo., says the westbound passenger train on the Qaincy, Omaha and Pacific Railroad was wrecked near Green Castle, Mo., yesterday afternoon. The mail oar became derailed, and the passenger coaches immediately behind it were thrown into the ditch. Mrs. Sarah G. Campbell, of Trenton, was killed outright. Conductor "Joe Mitchell, of Quincy, was fatally injured. Ten passen gers were also more or less hadly hurt, but none of them fatally. Conductor Mitchell's injuries are believed to be fatal. Mail-Agent H. M. Wheeler was also seriously injured.

EX GOVERNOR ROBINSON'S CONDITION. Elmira, N. Y., March 18.-Ex-Governor Robinson's attack of paeumonia caused him much pain and weak ness again last night, and his condition was much more noon he was resting quietly, and Dr. Packhurst told the family that he was better. The ex-Governor is weak, however.

A MORMON LEADER'S MEXICAN CONTRACT. Chicago, March 18.-A dispatch from Salt Lake City, Utah, confirms the report sent out from Findlay Olio, that John W. Young, son of Brigham Young had made a contract for building 1,500 miles of railroad in Mexico, taking in payment 2,500,900 acres of land on which he will locate a Mormon colony.

WORK OF A HUGE BLAST. Chattanooga, March 18 .- A blast was fired on the side of Lookout Mountain yesterday which dislodged 100,000 tons of rock. One hundred kegs of powder was the charge and a ledge of rock was broken up and thousands of tons rolled down the mountain side. The railroad track was destroyed for 200 yards.
